

INFORMATION ON THE 6TH YEAR COMPULSORY INTERNAL MEDICINE INTERNSHIP

IMPORTANT! Your course will only be accepted if your student book is completed and signed by your tutor!

Objectives:

Introduction to inhospital medical care from the admission of the patient to the discharge.

Practice in history taking and full physical examination.

Participation in decision making, diagnostic procedures and treatments.

Requirements:

1. To be present for at least 6 hours per day (30 hours per week)
2. Active participation in basic patient care (history taking, physical examination, venous blood taking, administration)
3. To be on night duty at least twice per month
4. To gain practice in patient documentation, problem-oriented medical record keeping, taking of pulse, blood pressure, temperature.
5. Participation in the preparation of diagnostic and therapeutic plan for patients.
6. To be present at invasive and semi-invasive interventions
 - Taps of ascites and pleural effusion
 - Preparation of bone marrow smear
 - Venous blood taking, insertion of peripheral canule
 - Arterial blood taking for blood gas analysis
 - Giving injections (iv, im, sc)
 - To practice basic laboratory techniques needed in bedside diagnosis (urinalysis, stool examination, use of dipsticks).
7. To be present at consultations in gastroenterology, diabetes, hematology, endocrinology, cardiology, sonography, X-ray, ECG.
8. Watch endoscopy performed
9. See and spend time in the intensive care unit and the coronary care unit
10. Be present at postmortems
11. Take active part in medical consultations concerning your patients, and the medical conferences held in the department.
12. To be familiar with diagnostics and therapeutic guidelines
13. Consult regularly the doctor responsible for you.
14. Practice communication, but avoiding conflicts with medical confidentiality.
15. Practice the prescription of commonly used drugs.