Dear Student,

I.

Student Benefits

10/A. § of the Order provides for the student benefits for the students participating in the protection against the pandemic who study medicine and health sciences and had a proven Covid infection or had to provenly quarantine during contact tracing. In the case of this circle of students, for the students studying in blocks we recommend the following opportunities to make up for the missed clinical practices due to their performance of tasks or their quarantine:

- on Thursday („obligatory” free day)
- all the day on the weekend, even including the duty period,
- in the afternoon/evening hours on Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays,
- in the time periods marked in black in the timetable on so-called “free weeks”
- during the two weeks ensured to make up for missed practices.

The activities done on order or voluntarily at the Faculty will be included in the practices falling under the given period in accordance with the following:

- in case of 1. year: maximum one week in the Summer (nursing) practice,
- in case of the 2. year: maximum one week in the Summer (nursing) practice for those who have not done it yet, and maximum one week in advance in the Summer Internal Medicine practice for those who have already done the nursing practice,
- in case of the 3. year: maximum one week in the Summer Internal Medicine practice,
- in case of the 4-5. years: maximum 2/3 of the block exercise for any subject based on the decision of the education-research organisation,
- in case of the 6. year: the whole activity will be included in the whole term in case of bedside practice, and on the basis of the decision of the organisational units concerned in case of sampling.

Having regard to the content of 10/A. § (14) of the Order, I wish to call your attention that you can have your subjects taken on in the autumn semester of academic year 2020/21 cancelled with no consequences based on a written request sent to your academic registrar until 24:00 on 13. December 2020.

Offering grades

Based on the Organisational and Operational Regulations of the Semmelweis University – Part III Student Standards – Chapter III.2. Study and Examination Regulation, 26. §:

„(1) In cases of subjects concluded by end-term examinations and of those consisting of seminars and practical sessions only, the head of the educational unit (the lecturer of the subject) can offer the student an excellent or a good grade based on the student’s performance during the study period. The terms of offering practical grades must be announced at the beginning of the semester.

(2) The relevant students must be informed about their offered grades on the last session of the subject at the latest through the appropriate platform of NEPTUN EFTR. The student is not obliged to accept the offered grade, he/she may apply for taking an examination instead. If the student does not register for any examination of the subject, then the offered grade that has been recorded by the NEPTON EFTR shall be deemed accepted.

(3) Maximum 5% of the students registered to the course may be offered a grade in the case of compulsory subjects.”

In line with 10/A.§ (9) of the Order:

„In contrast to paragraph (3) 26. § of the Study and Examination Regulation, the maximum number of the students concerned by the offering of grades can be defined by the dean of the faculty at a level higher than 5%, and having regard to this, grades can be offered until the end of the first week of the examination period.”
I inform you that in the case of compulsory subjects, maximum 10% of the students taking on a given subject may be offered grades at the Faculty of General Medicine.
