

DECLARATION OF AUTHENTICITY

I the undersigned NEPTUN code:

aware of my criminal and disciplinary liability hereby declare and acknowledge that in the course of my studies at Semmelweis University Faculty of Health Sciences all my written tests / dissertations / diploma theses are exclusively my own work - prepared without any unwarranted help - regarding their full length and all their results. During the preparation of my thesis, I complied with Act LXXVI of 1999 on Copyright rules of law. My written tests / dissertations / diploma thesis must not be a study that contains material - without applying the rules of citation and indicating the author - that has already been submitted or published elsewhere as a scientific work, especially as a college, university written test / dissertation / diploma thesis. I declare that I faithfully and accurately cite my printed and electronic sources, referring in particular to, but not limited to, books, journals, unpublished manuscripts, spreadsheets, figures, images used, material downloaded from the Internet and other oral assistance relevant to the topic.

I further declare that my written test / dissertation / diploma thesis and the materials used in them do not have any exclusive copyright, property / use rights of third parties that would restrict or impede their use. All the sources used for the preparation of the written test / dissertation / diploma thesis are listed in the bibliography.

I acknowledge that in the written test / dissertation / diploma thesis the followings are particularly considered plagiarism:

- the publication of a literal quote without quotation marks and references;
- citation of contents, without reference;
- indication of others' published thoughts as my own thoughts.

I, the undersigned, that I am familiar with the concept of plagiarism and that my written test / dissertation / diploma thesis will be rejected in the event of plagiarism.

I acknowledge,

a) that I must submit the printed and electronic copies of my dissertation / diploma thesis (submitted on a CD) in the same text and content;

b) that my thesis / diploma thesis will be registered and managed by the Library of Semmelweis University Faculty of Health Sciences in accordance with the library regulations; at the same time, I expressly consent to making a printed / electronic copy of my thesis available and searchable by persons using the services of Semmelweis University Faculty of Health Sciences; and, upon request, provide third parties with information on the location, accessibility and title of my dissertation, as well as on its essential content, in addition to my authorship and name;

(c) Semmelweis University Faculty of Health Sciences may verify my written test / dissertation / diploma thesis electronically or by other means to ensure that it is veritably an independent work;

d) should any suspicion of plagiarism and copyright infringement emerge, university disciplinary proceedings and / or civil proceedings may be instituted against me.
