

Paediatric dentistry

During core training period

Type of intervention	Number of cases
1. patient examination	100
2. primary tooth filling	25
3. pit and fissure sealing	10
4. endodontic treatment of primary tooth	10
5. endodontic treatment of permanent tooth	5
6. treatment of an acute case (damaged tooth, periostitis, abscess)	10
7. dental prevention of children with high caries activity

During specialist training period

Type of intervention	Number of cases
1. Means of prevention in paediatric dentistry
motivating, instructing, dietary counselling	1000
topical fluoride treatment	300
pit and fissure sealing	200
scaling	100
2. Caries and its treatment
primary tooth: grinding, impregnation	100
primary tooth: filling (one or more surfaces)	200
permanent tooth: filling of front tooth	50
permanent tooth: filling of molar and premolar tooth	250
3. Treatment of illnesses resulting from caries
primary tooth: pulpotomy, pulpectomy, root filling	50
permanent tooth: apexification	10
x-ray diagnostics	200
drug prescription	10
4. Oral surgery
primary tooth extraction	100
permanent tooth extraction	10
local anaesthesia	100
5. Dental appliances for children
5.1. in primary dentition:
preformed crowns	5
space maintainer	3
5.2. in permanent dentition:
fixed dental appliances	5
removable denture	2
6. Traumatic injuries, treatment
6.1. primary tooth (luxation, intrusion)	5
6.2. permanent tooth (fractura coronae, fractura radialis, luxation)	10
7. Treatment of oral diseases
7.1. gingivitis, juvenile periodontitis, viral and fungal infections	50