

One-year Postgraduate Program in Orthodontics

1. Orthodontic treatment combined with orthognathic surgery
2. Model operations
3. Participation in the consultation and treatment of patients with cleft lip and palate
4. Syndromes combined with malocclusions
5. Causes of relapse, their elimination and the possibilities of prevention
6. The latest techniques in orthodontics (Lingual technique, aligners, Damon system, etc.)
7. Comparing different types of fixed appliances, their advantages and challenges
8. Summarizing experiences with different removable appliances
9. The connection between orthodontics and other fields of dentistry. Advantages and possibilities of interdisciplinary treatment
10. Iatrogenic/deleterious effects of orthodontic treatment
11. Treatment of patients with special needs (e.g. injuries, hypodontia, hyperdontia etc.)
12. Importance of anchorage; strengthening methods (e.g. orthodontic implants)
13. Temporo-mandibular dysfunction
14. Collecting and presenting the documentation of at least ten treatments of different anomalies carried out during the postgraduate program
15. Participants follow the international publications in pedodontics and orthodontics, and participate in specialty courses organized by the university