SCORING

The student's social situation and academic record are taken into account at scoring, each of which making you eligible to obtain up to 40 points by providing the necessary supporting documents.

Students will be ranked according to their scores, and a maximum of 40 points per category will be determined according to their ranking.

A) ACADEMIC RECORD

- The applicant's academic score will be calculated on the basis of the data provided by the relevant Faculty Dean's Office / Academic Department / Center of International Training Programs on the basis of the admission score. The applicant is not required to provide any data.
- The student's academic record is calculated from the admission score (admission score is multiplied by 0.4).

B) SOCIAL/WELFARE CIRCUMSTANCES

- Questions can be sent to the following e-mail address: hok.applications@semmelweis.hu.
- In the subject line of the message, please indicate the Stipendium Hungaricum application ID ("Applicant ID" next to the name).
- It is not obligatory to provide information or documents about social status, but the applicant should note that in this case the score for this part will be 0.
- It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that documents are uploaded in an adequate quality. Should the documents are not legible, no points will be given for that factor.
- All documents must be translated into English.
- The original versions of the digitally uploaded certificates can be requested by the review team at any time. Uploading falsified documents will result in disciplinary action.

- Points are awarded for the following factors. The second column indicates the required document types.

Orphan	Death certificate	10 points

ADDITIONAL RULES OF APPLICATION

Applicants declare that in case of a successful application, they will enter into a contract with Semmelweis University and Óbuda Student Hotel. It is a fixed term contract for the duration of 1 year and will include the payment of additional fees and it stipulates that the student will not receive the housing allowance if they move out before the end of the fixed term.

The applicant may also apply to any other Semmelweis dormitory, but in this case you will be placed at the bottom of the waiting list (see the updated waiting list at <https://semmelweis.hu/hok/en/applications/application-for-dormitories/>).

During the assessment of social circumstances no corrections are allowed. The Students' Union provides opportunity for obtaining information on the detailed scoring procedure as well as on any errors/deficiencies in the application, which can be requested by the applicant at hok.applications@semmelweis.hu.

The student has the right to appeal, which they can do within 15 days of obtaining the result by sending an email to hok.applications@semmelweis.hu.

After the closing of the application period, the Directorate of International Relations together with the Student Welfare Committee will determine the final shortlist of candidates. Based on the final scores, the admission ranking of the Óbuda Student Hotel will be established and the Directorate of International Relations will notify the students.

Applicants who are not admitted to the Óbuda Student Hotel will be put on a waiting list. The waiting list ranking will be determined by the score obtained. As soon as accommodation at the Óbuda Student Hotel becomes available, it will be offered to the student at the top of the waiting list.

Students admitted successfully to the Óbudai Diák Hotel may cancel their place without any consequences within 5 days of the notification of the admission decision in writing via e-mail to stipendium.hungaricum@semmelweis.hu . In the event of cancellation after the above indicated deadline, the student will be charged the fee for the academic year 2023/2024.

Admitted students must take their place at the Hotel on the date set for moving in. If you are unable to do so, you must inform the Óbuda Student Hotel and the University in writing (seres.nora@semmelweis.hu), otherwise your accommodation will be given to another candidate from the waiting list.

DATA MANAGEMENT

- Personal data provided during the application process are processed by the Directorate of International Relations, the members of the Student Welfare Committee of the Students' Union as well as the staff assisting in administrative tasks. These data are and may be used exclusively for the assessment and processing of the submitted application.

- Concerning the management and protection of personal data, applicants may contact the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information and may also seek judicial remedies.
- Members of the Student Welfare Committee of the Students' Union do not make final decisions, they merely offer preliminary opinions on the applications submitted. By accepting the assignment, they also agree to maintain the confidentiality of the personal data they have obtained in the course of their deliberations.
