

HYBRID INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Trends and Challenges in Medical and Health Sciences
Education

4-5 MAY 2023 - BUDAPEST, HUNGARY

As part of the program series celebrating the 40th anniversary of the international medical education at Semmelweis University, the Centre for Educational Development, Methodology and Organisation is hosting an international hybrid conference on Educational Development, between 4-5 May in Budapest.

Our festive event, featuring renowned national and international speakers, aims to create a forum for the multidisciplinary exchange of innovations and good practices in educational methodology and teaching technology, highlighting international trends and latest developments in particular, but not limited to medical and health sciences education.

We are looking forward to welcoming higher education professionals, teachers, students, decision-makers from Hungary and abroad.

- Poster abstract submission: 18 April 2023
- Language of the event: English

Due to the support of the "Development of Practical Medical Education at Semmelweis University - RRF-2.1.2-21-2022-00010" project, participation in the jubilee conference is free of charge, but registration is required.

Main Topics:

- ✓ Trends and challenges in medical and health sciences education
- ✓ Educational technology development and digitalisation in higher education
- ✓ Evaluating teacher and student performance in practice
- ✓ Supporting teaching and learning: opportunities and best practices
- ✓ Challenges arising from the internationalisation of higher education

Parallel to the conference, an expo will take place in the area next to the auditorium, where leading companies, institutions and non-profit organisations of the sector will have the opportunity to introduce themselves and showcase their products and services.

Participants can choose from a wide range of programs including a book fair, personal counselling and the opportunity of testing innovative educational tools.
