

Medical examination information

Compulsory medical examination

The admitted student of Semmelweis University, András Pető Faculty required to have a valid medical certificate, in accordance with NH Regulation nr.33/1998 (VI.24) on occupational hygiene and fitness medical examination and assessment, issued by the occupational firm's doctor on the basis of the medical examination.

Specification of the medical examination is included.

The obligatory medical examination take place in the Medical Office at 12th District, Budapest nr. 8 of Kútvölgyi street, Building „A”, 1st floor.

Please be sure to bring your medical findings with you during the medical examination.

During the compulsory aptitude test for first-year students, they must bring to the medical examination:

1. Chest RTG finding not older than 1 year
2. VDRL and urine findings
3. Faeces bacteriological negative result
4. The duly completed anamnesis/case history document
5. The duly completed Medical certificate signed by a registered medical practitioner
6. Ophthalmic findings not older than 1 year
7. Additional findings depending on the epidemiological situation (eg. vaccination certificate, test of PCR)