

Application Information

For the title: András Pető Faculty's Designated Institute for Practice

Summary of the new initiative:

- Establishment of an official network of international conductive institutions as internship placements for the students of András Pető Faculty
- Conductive institutions, conductive rehabilitation centers and conductive special schools can apply for the title
- A new opportunity to promote conductive institutions for the students of András Pető Faculty
- A stronger bond between the conductive institutions and the parent institute
- Students can be supported by the Pannónia Scholarship program to provide for their financial needs during their time abroad – ask us for more details!

Benefits

- Receiving the title: András Pető Faculty's Designated Institute for International Practice
- Access to the detailed topics of the practice subjects
- One time free participation in events organized by the András Pető Faculty for 3 guests annually
- 3 copies of books and other professional publications of the András Pető Faculty annually for free
- Possibility of receiving students from András Pető Faculty for a professional internship – ask us for more details.

Professional requirements

- Human resources:
 - Minimum 2 conductors with a Conductive Pedagogy BA diploma from APF and minimum 3 years of professional experience
 - Mentor for students on traineeships
 - Responsible for communicating and cooperating with the András Pető Faculty
 - Has to be able to coordinate the student's task according to the requirements of the APF
 - Has to participate in a 30-hour hybrid training at the APF before the start of the internship project. Has to participate in a 15-hour training at the APF annually – ask us for more details.

Professional requirements

- Institutional requirements:
 - Registered organization, with a legally regulated status
 - Rehabilitation in groups is a baseline
 - Rehabilitation is led by a conductor
 - Minimum number of clients in a group is 4
 - The rehabilitation is dominantly based on the principles of conductive pedagogy
 - The program must include a task series, self-care activities, and its application
 - Length of programs can be different
 - Institutions that regularly request supervision from the faculty are given preference

Professional requirements

- Scope of treated people:
 - Children and adults eligible for Conductive Pedagogy
 - People with a predominantly limited mobility or other abilities, or a similar combination of symptoms, as a result of a central nervous system injury
 - Diagnosis based on medical diagnosis

Professional requirements

- Equipment:
 - Instruments of conductive pedagogy:
 - Pető furniture: plinth, stool, small and large ladderback-chair, parallel bars, table, mirror, wall-bar, ladder (walking), various size mats (carpet), various- sized boxes (under the feet and behind the back)
 - Special tools: ring, stick, suction bar, two-handled cup, silverware with a thick handle
 - Age-appropriate developmental toys and equipments
 - Aids available and funded by the local health care system

Professional requirements

- Documentation:
 - The institution
 - Must have the clients' medical release forms
 - Need to have documentation about the clients' development history
 - Need to use a development plan with the clients' short and long-term goals, daily and weekly schedule
 - Should be able to weekly report about the students intership

Professional requirements

- Principles of Conductive Pedagogy is present in the development:
 - Specially designed, integrated educational process
 - Motivation-targeted motivation-intentional and purposeful motivation to act continuously and providing tailored feedback, evaluation
 - Goal system adapted to the child's individual characteristics - individual-specific development plan - embedded in a complex programme and a conductive group format
 - Emphasis on and focus on active children's activities and learning by doing, experiencing and learning
 - Complex personal development, advocating and demanding a holistic approach
 - Keeping the group as a form of organization
 - Rhythmic intendation used during tasks

How to become part of the network

1. Official request letter – signed and stamped – via e-mail to the petointernational@semmelweis.hu e-mail address
2. We will send a short form to fill out in our response e-mail
3. Meet with the designated colleagues of APF online to discuss all questions related to this proposal
4. Order an official supervision form APF
 - One senior conductor from SE PAK will visit your institution and checks if you meet with all the requirements
 - If needed the senior conductor can help to fulfill missing requirements
 - Cost of the supervision is 1600€ in the academic year 2024/25 + travel, accommodation and food for 5 days
5. Order the 30 hours professional short course for at least one of your conductors
 1. Special content focusing on successfully mentor students during internships
6. András Pető Faculty officially grants the title for your institution for 1 year - The title can be renewed by ordering supervision every year plus ordering a professional course for your colleagues at least once every 3 years

Thank you for your attention!

