

Syllabus of the summer hospital/institutional practice after the second year (4 weeks, 40 hours pro week, 8 hours daily)

Topics to be studied:

A) Characteristics of hospital medicine preparation

- sterile magistral medicine preparation,
- non-sterile magistral medicine preparation,
- unique prescriptions.

B) Clinical laboratory tasks

- handling samples,
- routine examinations,
- microbiological examinations: determining antibiotic-sensitivity,
- possible special procedure (drug level monitoring).

C) Getting to know the pharmaceutical aspects of therapeutic work

- getting an insight into the hospital/clinical pharmaceutical tasks

D) Quality assurance issues

- personal and material conditions of medicine preparation,
- hygiene aspects,
- aspects of patient admission and care.

Budapest, June 2021

Dr. István Antal sgd.
Dean