

The VOW of FRESHMEN

I, ..., student of Semmelweis University promise under oath that I will respect the Hungarian laws and the Fundamental Law of Hungary. I promise that I shall acknowledge and respect the traditions and the ethical and professional prestige of Semmelweis University and the Faculty chosen by me. I promise that my attitude will be worthy of my future profession, and I will abide by the laws and university regulations and lead my university life acknowledging this responsibility. I will keep the secrets of the fellow humans that I learn about in the course of my studies. I promise solemnly that I will cooperate with the professors, teachers, fellow students and everyone I get in contact with at the University based on mutual respect and I will act with understanding and respect toward them. I will pursue my studies with full sense of responsibility to prepare myself to the best of my abilities for all my duties and obligations in my profession so as to be able to serve with my knowledge the progress of mankind.

I hereby solemnly swear on my conscience and honor that I will keep these promises!
