Planned Measures based on student feedback on the autumn semester of the 2021/2022 academic year – Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences

Department of Languages for Specific purposes

The student feedback from the 2nd semester of 2021/2022 reflected the students' satisfaction with the language teaching methods at our Institute. Regarding the feedback concerning "Hungarian language" courses the professional training of our instructors and their ability to adapt to the needs of students were much appreciated. Positive feedback was received on the themes and structure of the lessons. Students at the English program rated us well above the faculty average from every aspect.

In general, students were also satisfied with the "Terminology" subject, with practical results much above the faculty average for all questions.
