

INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE

EUniWell unites seven top European Universities: Universities of Birmingham, Firenze, Köln, Leiden, Linnaeus, Nantes, and Semmelweis.

Every year partner universities set up a fund in order to support and encourage multilateral networking and joint projects that are in line with EUniWell's mission: the promotion of well-being.

Now SECOND SEED FUNDING CALL is announced for promoting joint research and teaching projects within the consortium.

WHO CAN APPLY?

Proposals can be submitted by teachers, researchers, students, or administrative staff from at least three universities of the consortium, cooperating in realizing EUniWell's objectives of well-being.

Priority is given to innovative educational and research projects which promote collaboration and knowledge transfer within the consortium.

DO YOU NEED ANY SUPPORT?

Semmelweis University is inviting you to an interactive brainstorming event enabling to discuss your ideas, present your thoughts, and get advice from experts on how to submit a competitive proposal.

Join Semmelweis Introductory Event!

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS OR IDEAS FOR SEED FUNDING PROPOSALS:

BUDGET: max. 25,000 EUR / project
The budget has to be spent within a year.
